

IT GROWS ENCOURAGING.

News From the Wounded President
Continues of an Encouraging
Character.

NO COMPLICATIONS HAVE DEVELOPED.

The Belief Prevails That the President Will Recover, and That Belief is Reflected in the Countenances of Visitors Leaving the Milburn Home at Buffalo.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—The following bulletin was issued by the physicians at 9:20 a. m.: "The president's condition is becoming more and more satisfactory. Untoward incidents are less likely to occur. Pulse 122; temperature 100.8 degrees; respiration 25.

[Signed] P. M. RIXEY,
M. D. MANN,
ROSSWELL PARK,
HERMAN MYNTER,
EUGENE WASHIN,
CHAS. McBURNEY.

GEORGE B. CORTELYOU,
Secretary to the president.

WAS AN ANXIOUS WAIT.

The Bulletin of the Doctors Was Awaited With Much Anxiety.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—The doctors began assembling about eight o'clock, and it was 9:12 before any of them came away from the Milburn house. Pending their conferences, there was an anxious wait. Several visitors arrived, including ex-Postmaster-General Russell and Chas. P. Sanger. Mr. Russell was one of the first to emerge from the house after the doctors had completed their consultation, and in a brief general way he summarized the situation by saying that the conditions were favorable, although he had no details. A few moments later Dr. Rossell Park and Secretary Wilson came out together. Dr. Park answered the many inquiries with a cheerful and very positive assurance of confidence. "The situation is entirely satisfactory," said he, "and there are no symptoms to cause alarm."

No Cause for Apprehension.

He was asked if the earlier bulletin referring to the president's "somewhat restless night" warranted any apprehension.

"Not in the least," he replied. "It is entirely natural that a patient in the president's condition should have some periods of restlessness. But he is receiving no anesthetics. He is fully conscious at all times when he is awake, and his mind is clear."

Conversation Prohibited.

When asked if the president conversed with those about him, the doctor said the patient was quite able to talk and did so as far as the physicians permitted, although they were reluctant to permit him to sap any of his energy in this way.

Secretary Wilson, who moved on down Delaware avenue, while Dr. Park was talking to the newspaper men, was overjoyed with the word which the physicians had brought from the sick room.

"The President Will Get Well."

"The president will get well," he said several times. "I feel it and I am sure the doctors now feel it. Of course, the danger point has not been passed, but the continued absence of unfavorable symptoms strengthens our hope. The period for peritonitis to appear is rapidly passing away and there is not a sign of inflammation. The promptness with which the operation was performed and the skill with which it was accomplished are telling their story. The tissues were sutured so quickly that they probably began to heal immediately. The president's good health and the long life of careful living behind him are in his favor; but above all, his indomitable will and his fine courage are the factors counted upon to pull him through. He has made up his mind to live, and live he will. The rise in his temperature during the night was somewhat disturbing, but his febrile condition is better, and our hopes continue in the ascendant. The fact that his slumber during the night was restless is not to be wondered at. All the conditions under which he is living are abnormal. The water and liquid nourishment which he is receiving are being administered hypodermically, and this fact alone would account for his restlessness."

Dr. Mynter's Opinion.

Dr. Herman Mynter came from the Milburn house at 9:30. He said: "Everything is satisfactory. Every hour that passes with no decidedly unfavorable results is encouraging and indicate of final recovery."

Dr. Eugene Washin, another of the consultation staff, emerged from the house a few minutes later. He said: "There are no distressing symptoms. The restlessness of the patient during the night is not serious and is to be expected when it is understood that he slept during the day Sunday."

Abner McKinley, brother of the president, arrived at the house of Mr. Milburn at 10:05 and was immediately admitted.

Feeling of Satisfaction Prevailed.

Senator Fairbanks and Comptroller of the Currency Dawes came from the house together and their smiling faces indicated the satisfaction prevailing among those nearest the president.

"Splendid, splendid," said Senator Fairbanks, referring to the doctors' last report. Just then Abner McKinley and several friends arrived, and there was an interesting group on the lawn, with the tall figure of Senator Fairbanks in the center, and Messrs. McKinley and Dawes on either side. The good news from the sick room was imparted to the president's brother and the latter's friends, and all joined in heartfelt expressions of relief. When Abner McKinley came from the house at 10:45 he repeated the expressions of confidence given by those who had preceded him, but added no new details on the situation.

Senator Hanna Felt Happy.

Senator Hanna drove up as Mr. McKinley left. The senator seemed to be in a happy frame of mind, as the satisfactory bulletin had already reached him.

When a number of photographers leveled their camera at him, he smilingly asked: "How many a times a day do you fellows expect to do that to me?"

Myron T. Herriek, who accompanied him, added the jocular comment: "Instead of the camera, you had better put the X rays on the senator."

Those passing remarks reflected the happy state of feeling which prevailed among those near the president.

DOUBT ALMOST DISPELLED.

Confidence Beginning to Be Felt in Ultimate Recovery.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—President McKinley's condition Monday morning was so favorable that it dispelled almost the last shade of doubt and apprehension and led those nearest him to make the most confident predictions of his recovery. The official bulletins from the physicians as well as the authoritative statements of those in most intimate relation with the presidential household gave certainty to the feeling that the worst phases of the crisis were about over.

Temporary Apprehension Dispelled.

The tone of the early bulletin in referring to the president's "somewhat restless night" gave temporary apprehension, but this was speedily dispelled by the results of the consultation held by the doctors, from eight to nine o'clock and officially announced at the latter hour. This disclosed a marked improvement in the pulse and temperature. Aside from these pathological features, the doctors gave the cheering information, free from all technicalities of science, that the president's condition was becoming more and more satisfactory and that untoward symptoms were becoming less likely. Besides their official, signed utterances, the doctors gave individual expressions reinforcing the buoyant and confident tone. They made known, too, that the president's mind was clear, his mental faculties as vigorous as ever ready to talk with the doctors, but they restrained him to a considerable extent.

Produced Feeling of Confidence.

These positive assurances gave to the members of the cabinet and to the relatives and nearest friends of the president, a feeling of confidence little short of absolute certainty that the president was now well on the way to recovery. Without exception, those who came from the Milburn house expressed this same confident view. Among those who called to receive the good news and then to repeat it to the many anxious watchers, were Attorney-General Knox, Secretary Wilson, Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith, Senator Hanna, Abner McKinley, Myron T. Herriek, Senator Fairbanks, Comptroller Dawes and many others holding the closest relations with the president.

SHE SAW HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. McKinley Permitted to Pay a Brief Visit to her Husband.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Mrs. McKinley was admitted to the sick room Monday morning and had a brief stay with her afflicted husband. The veil of domestic privacy is, of course, thrown over the details of the meeting. Mrs. McKinley bore up well and displayed the same fortitude which has characterized her, as well as the president, since the tragic event occurred. Although there have been statements that Mrs. McKinley has not been apprised of the manner in which the president was injured, it can be stated, positively, that she is fully aware that he was shot, although it has not been necessary to dwell upon the harrowing details of the affair.

SIGN OF GROWING STRENGTH.

The President Able to Turn Himself Without Pain.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—As indicating the growing strength of the president, the following incident of the morning is related by one of those inside the Milburn house familiar with the facts.

Mr. McKinley had been lying for a long time in one position, but during the morning he asked if he could change this position. The doctors in attendance gave their assent, whereupon the president changed his position by his own effort, without difficulty and without pain.

The Outlook Still Grows Favorable.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Attorney-General Knox and Postmaster-General Smith came from the Milburn house at 2:45. They were highly pleased at the outlook, as Dr. Rixey, who is constantly with the president, told Mr. Knox that when the other physicians came for the three o'clock consultation they would be delighted with the situation.

ROOSEVELT IS GUARDED.

All the Movements of Vice-President Are Guarded by Vigilant Secret Service Men.

THERE IS NO OSTENTATION ABOUT IT.

The Vice-President Hardly Known of It Himself, But an Assassin Would Needs Be Particularly Bold to Reach Him—Other Matters of Present Interest.

New York, Sept. 9.—A special to the World from Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Although Vice-President Roosevelt does not know it, the government has made more adequate provision for his protection than it did for that of President McKinley. Whenever the vice-president leaves the residence of Lawyer Ansley Wilcox, where he is staying, there are two or three secret service men at hand to ward off any attempt that might be made on his life. The orders for the protection of the vice-president come from some source that is not disclosed.

Attended Him to Church.

"During his attendance at service at First Presbyterian church, six secret service men occupied seats within a short distance of him. One of them took a seat on the box of his carriage when he drove away, and the others followed in another carriage. "When he alighted at the Buffalo club, during the afternoon, the detectives were close at hand, and when he called at President Milburn's house to inquire after the president's condition they were within a few feet of him.

CHICAGO DAY AT THE PAN.

It Will Go On as Planned Unless the President Should Die.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The latest advice received from Buffalo by Commissioners J. W. Templeton and E. J. Brundage are to the effect that the president's condition is such that plans of Illinois day at the Pan-American exposition may be proceeded with. The commissioners are in communication with Gov. Yates and will announce definitely their action later.

Edwin A. Munger, president of the Hamilton club, chairman of the Illinois day committee, said: "Until we receive further advice, plans for the Illinois day excursions will proceed as already announced. If any change is to be made, the fact will be announced Tuesday. A meeting of the committees and representatives from various other organizations will be held this afternoon.

ANARCHISTS UNDER ARREST.

Nine of Them Held at Chicago, for Further Investigation.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The nine anarchists under arrest here were arraigned before Magistrate Prindiville. At the request of the city the hearing was postponed till September 19 in order to allow further investigation of the charge that they conspired to murder the president. Several of the prisoners have admitted acquaintance with the would-be assassin Czolgosz and the police are working on the theory that the president's assailant was inspired to do the deed by the teachings he received while here last July. The six male prisoners were held without bail, pending the hearing, while the three women arrested with them were held in bonds of $3,000.

WILL ABANDON ITS TRIP.

Cook County (Ill.) Democracy Will Not Go to the Pan-American.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The Cook County Democracy has voted to abandon its trip to the Pan-American exposition, giving as a reason that it would be indelicate for a political club to march and enjoy itself in the streets of Buffalo at a time when the president of the United States was in distress near by.

The club also adopted resolutions "expressing sincere regret and sorrow at the attempted assassination of President McKinley and hope that our esteemed president will be restored to full and perfect health."

ITALIANS ARE THANKFUL.

They Say "Thank God the Would-Be Assassin Isn't an Italian."

Milan, Sept. 9.—Commenting on the attempted assassination of President McKinley, La Perseveranza says: "Thanks be to God the would-be assassin is not an Italian. Caserio Luccheni and Bresci have given an abominable reputation to our name abroad and brought down upon our countrymen in foreign lands not a little evil. Such wretches, however, have no nationality, just as they have no country, no conscience, no morality."

A POLICEMAN DISCIPLINED.

He Expressed Satisfaction Over the Shooting of McKinley.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—George Hussman, a mounted patrolman on the police force here, was subjected to the humiliating ordeal of having the insignia of his rank taken from him before a crowd of brother officers in the offices of the chief of police here on a charge of having made a remark that he was glad that McKinley was shot.

Denounced by Chicago Poles.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Chicago Poles, Sunday night, denounced the crime of Leon Czolgosz, and regretted that he claimed to be of their race.

Prayers for the President.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Sept. 9.—Prayers for the recovery of President McKinley were offered in the churches here Sunday.

Searching for Emma Goldman.

New York, Sept. 9.—Detectives are searching for clues to the whereabouts of Emma Goldman. Leaders among the anarchists deny that she is in the city. They assert that she is in hiding in St. Louis.

Ireland Abhors the Crime.

London, Sept. 9.—John Redmond, the Irish leader, cabled to Vice-President Roosevelt as follows: "In the name of the Irish nationalist party, I send an expression of deepest sympathy. Ireland abhors the dastardly crime."

THE ASSASSIN'S BULLETS.

Diagram Showing the Points of Impact of the Bullets Fired at President McKinley.

St. Louis, Sept. 9.—The following diagram indicates the points at which the bullets fired by Assassin Czolgosz at President McKinley entered. The upper wound was merely superficial, having been turned by contact with the sternum, the force not being sufficient to penetrate the breast. The lower wound perforated the stomach, passing entirely through it, and is believed to be either lodged in the muscles of the back or to have fallen into the abdominal cavity.

ROOSEVELT IS CONFIDENT.

The Vice-President Feels the Greatest Confidence in the Recovery of the President.

Milburn House, Buffalo, Sept. 9.—"I may say that I have even deeper information than the bulletins, and I again say with great confidence that the president will recover."

The foregoing statement was made by Vice-President Roosevelt, in the course of an interview with a press correspondent, while walking to Milburn house.

He reiterated the statement after he had had a ten-minute visit with the physicians.

Talked With a Correspondent.

The vice-president did not leave the Wilcox mansion, where he is staying, until after the noon hour, and then he walked the mile to the presidential quarters in company with the correspondent.

Just after he had left the mansion he was accosted by a colored man who was raking a lawn. "Governor, may I shake hands with you?" he said.

"You certainly may," answered the vice-president, turning quickly and grasping his hand, and then as two laborers with dinner pails and tools slipped up, he shook hands with them.

Spoken Like an American.

"Ain't you afraid of being shot?" asked one of the men. "No, sir," he snapped out, "and I hope no official of this country will ever be afraid. You men are our protection, and the foul deed done the afternoon of Friday will only make you the more vigorous in your protection of the lives of those whom you select to office. Such men as you can work with the ballot for the salvation of the country without resort to violence."

Thinks Recovery Will Be Rapid.

As he walked on, the vice-president discussed the case of the president and his condition. He said: "I believe that the bulletins being issued are none too sanguine. In fact, I know they are not. I am perfectly positive that the president will recover, and more than that, I believe the illness will be brief and the recovery rapid. I had two men and a relative shot in the same manner in the Cuban campaign. They lay in the marshes for some time without attendance and yet they recovered."

TRAGEDY AT DES MOINES, IA.

A Young Husband Instantly Kills His Wife and Then Attempts Suicide.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 9.—While standing upon the parking of Locust street, in the heart of the city, at 7:45 a. m., talking with his wife, Oats Green, 27 years of age, of Albion, Ia., put a bullet through the back of his wife's head, killing her instantly, and then placed his revolver to his right temple and sent a bullet crashing through his head. He will die. He was taken to the police station, where he stated that he had killed his wife because she was untrue to him and refused to live with him. Both are strangers in the city.

Returned to Work.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 9.—Thirty-five Amalgamated men returned to work at the plant of the Illinois Steel Co., in Bay View. It is said two of the company's mills, the 12-inch and rail mill, were started. Among those who reported for duty were J. D. Hickey and J. F. Cooper, the two men who went to Pittsburgh recently to learn the real facts about the strike.

THE CASE OF COLGOSZ.

The Legal Status of the Would-Be Assassin of the President at Buffalo.

NO SPECIAL STATUTE FOR SUCH CASES.

Under the Law It Is Merely a Local Offense, Committed Against a Private Citizen, in Violation of the Laws of the State of New York and of Erie County.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Many sensational reports are being circulated about cabinet action looking to the apprehension and prosecution of Emma Goldman and leaders of anarchist organizations, of mysterious directions from the secretary of war to the chief of police here, and of developments of a startling nature that are anticipated. The great majority of these reports, in the words of a cabinet officer, are "manufactured out of whole cloth."

On the question of the prosecution of Czolgosz, the cabinet are unanimously of the opinion, that it is purely a local affair. There is no government statute covering an assault upon the president of the United States, and in the eye of the law the crime of last Friday is merely a local offense committed against a private citizen in violation of the laws of the state of New York and of Erie County.

The only request Secretary Root has made to the superintendent of police and the district attorney here was one designed to prevent the would-be assassin from being made a hero by exploitation. It can be stated upon the authority of a cabinet officer that no general movements against anarchists is contemplated.

No specific order for the arrest or detention of Emma Goldman has been sent out by Superintendent Bull, but it is possible that she will be arrested on the general request that the police throughout the country locate and examine any person who may be suspected of complicity in the crime. The police are endeavoring to trace her movements immediately before and after the president was shot.

FRIGHTFUL RAILROAD WRECK.

Wreck of a Train Loaded with Grand Army Excursionists On the Baltimore & Ohio.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 9.—A frightful railroad accident occurred at Huron tunnel, 49 miles east of here, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. One man was killed and others slightly injured. The engine on the through express, running 30 miles an hour, broke a flange and jumped square across the track, rolling over onto its side and plowed into the side of a hill. Engineer M. B. Stover, one of the oldest men on the road, was pinned under the engine, and fire, which followed the wreck, cremated his body. Fireman Marlow was thrown from the engine, landing under the cab, where he was fatally scalded by escaping steam. Baggage-master Frank Riley and Postal Clerk Ross were both badly hurt, but not fatally.

The train was made up of six coaches loaded with G. A. R. excursionists bound for Cleveland. All were shaken up, but not more than a dozen were hurt, these being cut by broken glass.

After the wreck the coaches took fire, and two, with the baggage car, were burned. The effects of the passengers were all lost. Travel on the road is blocked and may not be opened before night.

THE GATHERING VETERANS.

Cleveland, O., Filling Up With Grand Army Veterans and Visitors to the Encampment.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 9.—Monday, the first of the G. A. R. encampment, was occupied chiefly with informal reunions of veterans who are constantly pouring into the city. The streets are alive with visitors. It is estimated that there are 100,000 guests and excursionists here now.

Gen. Sickles of New York; Gen. Stewart of Pennsylvania, and Judge Torrence, of Minnesota, are among the candidates mentioned for the office of commander-in-chief.

A number of committee meetings were held in the afternoon. A reception and grand military ball were the features on the programme for to-night.

A Trio of Dynamiters.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Three men claiming to be linemen, on being refused admission to the office of the Chicago General Electric Co., here to-day, placed a dynamite cartridge under the front door and exploded it, wrecking the building and injuring Night Watchman Brennan. The men escaped.

They Ought to Know Better.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 9.—Three inmates of the National soldiers' home here are under arrest and in the guardhouse of that institution for having expressed sympathy with the attack on the president.

Secretary Has Gone to Buffalo.

Newbury, N. H., Sept. 9.—Secretary of State John Hay left Newbury to-day for Buffalo. At Boston the secretary expected to meet his wife, who will accompany him to the end of his journey.

OTHERWISE UNNOTICED.

Ex-Gov. William J. Stone, of Missouri, announces that he favors severe punishment for every anarchist. Charles Elbogen and his horse were precipitated over the brink of a quarry, at St. Louis, and both instantly killed.

Beaumont (Tex.) oil gushers were endangered by fire Sunday, having caught a quantity of oil floating on the waters of a near-by slough fire.

The St. Louis World's fair guards will be organized as soon as the force of workmen begins preparing the grounds for the buildings.

The raid of the St. Louis sheriff on householders who have neglected to pay their personal taxes has caused a panic among certain classes.

Chicago will fight anarchism again. Mayor Harrison has ordered the arrest of speakers indulging in violent language, and the police will not temporize with anarchists.

Mrs. McKinley bears up remarkably well. She visited Sunday, the president for a few minutes and displayed the greatest fortitude and composure. Miss Maud Willard, who attempted to pass through the rapids and pool of Niagara in a barrel, died immediately after being dragged from the barrel.

Prayers were offered in all of the churches of the country Sunday for the president's recovery, and in not a few reference was made to the tragedy from pulpits.

As the result of a 24-hour gale on Lake Huron the shores were strewn with wrecks Sunday night. No loss of life is reported.

James W. Van Laningham and Rev. D. D. Monfort, the pioneer missionary in the slums of St. Joseph, Mo., were severely injured in a runaway accident Sunday evening.

William Meek, a young man, residing with his parents on the Valley View farms just north of Edwardsville, Ill., killed himself because his parents objected to his sweetheart.

James Hudson Miller and Peter H. Bohls, of St. Louis, were drowned at Long lake, near Mitchell, Ill. Sunday, by the overturning of the boat from which they, with two others, were fishing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cress died at the home of John W. Ritchie, four miles northeast of Litchfield, Ill. She was born in 1813 and was known as the oldest person in North Litchfield township.

German Red Sea Coaling Station.

Constantinople, Sept. 9.—A German vessel has landed a cargo of coal on the island of Farsan, in the Red sea, on a dock constructed by the German government, which is understood to be negotiated with Turkey for the lease of a coaling station.

Independent Order of Red Men.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 9.—The annual national convention and convocation of the Independent Order of Red Men was opened here. Delegates representing 115 tribes, besides 23 delegates representing the Daughters of Pocahontas, were present.

Costly Fire in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 9.—Fire, Sunday night, destroyed J. H. Menges' wholesale grocery and ship chandlery and L. M. Brunawig & Co.'s chemical warehouse. The loss will reach $200,000.
